

The Dun Cow

Salthouse, North Norfolk

Directions

The Dun Cow is situated right on the village green in Salthouse, easily accessible from the A149 Coast Road.

From the North and West

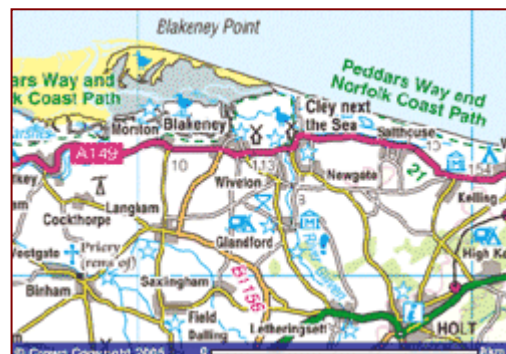

From the north, use the A17 then A47 towards King's Lynn. From the west, use the A47. Near the end of the dual carriageway, you must leave the A47 and join the A149 (There is a slip-road on the left – if you miss this, you can use the next round-about).

If time is not an issue, then stay on the A149 coastal road. This will follow the North Norfolk Coast, until you arrive in Salthouse.

If you prefer a more direct route, then after King's Lynn take the A148, which is the third exit on the second roundabout after leaving the A47.

Leave this a bit before Holt to join the B1156 on the left. This will join the A149, continue right to enter Salthouse.
